Journal Title: _____ Author(s): _____

Manuscript #: _____

Title of the Contribution: _____

To: Landes Bioscience (hereinafter “Landes”)

1. In consideration of Landes agreeing to publish the Contribution, the Authors grant to Landes an exclusive license to:
  - (a) Publish, reproduce, transmit, distribute and display the Contribution in all forms and formats whether now known or hereafter conceived or developed throughout the world,
  - (b) Prepare translations and other derivative works based on the Contribution,
  - (c) License any or all of the foregoing to others.
2. Copyright. Ownership of the copyright remains with the Authors, and provided that, when reproducing all or part of the Contribution, the Authors first acknowledge and reference publication in the Journal, the Authors retain the following non-exclusive rights:
  - (a) Use of all or part of the Contribution (after publication in the Journal) in any book, article, thesis or dissertation written by the Authors without first requiring permission from Landes.
  - (b) To reuse figures or tables created by the Authors and contained in the Contribution in the Authors' future works.
  - (c) Make photocopies of all or part of the Contribution for use by the Authors and any academic institution where they work for the purpose of classroom teaching.
  - (d) To post a copy of the Contribution as accepted for publication after peer review on the Author's personal website or institutional repository, or the Author's funding body's designated archive as soon as possible but no later than 12 months after publication by the Journal.
3. Author's Duties:
  - (a) If the Contribution contains copyrighted material not owned by the Authors, then Authors shall obtain written permission from the copyright owner, in a form acceptable to Landes, to include such copyrighted material in the Contribution and to reprint it in the Journal, and shall deliver such written permission to Landes together with delivery of the manuscript of the Contribution.
  - (b) Landes may copyedit the Contribution as necessary in order to prepare it for publication in the Journal. The Author will proofread and correct the edited manuscript and shall return the proofs in a timely manner as directed. If proofs are not corrected in a timely manner, Landes may proceed with the publication of the Contribution as it deems appropriate.
  - (c) The full text of the Contribution may not be posted on any social network, commercial website or self-archived on any website that is not the Author's personal website or the funding body's database prior to publication and for the first 12 months after publication unless the Open Access fee has been paid to Landes.
4. The Authors warrant and represent that:
  - (a) The Contribution has not been previously published, is not in the public domain and is the original work of the Authors.
  - (b) The Authors are the sole owners of the copyright of the Contribution and have the full power and authority to assign the license to Landes. If the Contribution includes materials of others, the Authors have obtained permission of the original copyright owner to enable them to grant the rights contained herein.
  - (c) The Contribution does not infringe the copyright or any other proprietary right of any party.
  - (d) The Contribution contains no material that is defamatory, violates any right of privacy or is otherwise contrary to law.
  - (e) All statements in the Contribution asserted as facts are based upon reasonable research for accuracy.
  - (f) No formula or procedure contained in the Contribution would cause injury if used in accordance with the instructions and/or warnings contained in the Contribution.
5. Authors employed by the US Government:

If the Author's contribution was performed as part of the Author's official duties as an employee of the US Government, the Publisher acknowledges that copyright may not be established in the United States.
6. Authors with funding from agencies with deposition requirements:
  - (a) For Authors who must comply with NIH Public Access Policy, Landes will deposit an electronic version of the final, peer-reviewed manuscript upon acceptance for publication in NIH's PubMed Central archive to be publicly available no later than 12 months after publication by the Journal.
  - (b) For Authors who must comply with UKPMC funding agencies (including Wellcome Trust) Landes will deposit an electronic version of the final, peer-reviewed manuscript upon acceptance for publication in the UKPMC archive to be available no later than 6 months after publication by the Journal.
  - (c) For Authors who have paid the Open Access fee, please see the Open Access License Agreement.
